Visit to the Fire Station: Theme-based Learning at Inventure Academy Preschool, Whitefield

As part of theme-based learning on Community Helpers, PreK and K1 learners at Inventure Academy Preschool, Whitefield, visited a fire station to understand the role of a fireman. The little ones were excited to explore, watching firefighters demonstrate safety equipment and even trying on some gear. The highlight was a live demonstration of emergency response. This engaging experience helped learners appreciate the work of firefighters while reinforcing the importance of community helpers.

Partnering Parents: A Special Initiative

Partnering Parents is an ongoing initiative at Inventure Academy Preschool Whitefield, where parents collaborate on creative projects with their children. Activities like cooking, storytelling, and gardening foster meaningful connections. Recently, PreK learners, guided by parents, explored various art techniques, enhancing self-expression and experiential learning. Strengthening the home-school bond, this initiative has been an enriching experience for both parents and students.

Celebration of Learning (CoL) at Whitefield-Sarjapur Campus

The recent Middle School Project-Based Learning (PBL) event showcased students' creativity, critical thinking, and collaboration in Sciences, Humanities, and Math. Highlights included:
